

EXIM Thailand Joins “Eurasian Day 2017: Doing Business in Russia and Kazakhstan with In-depth Markets Intelligence and Strategy” Seminar

Dr. Rak Vorrakitpokatorn (third left), Senior Executive Vice President of Export-Import Bank of Thailand (EXIM Thailand), recently posed for a group photo with H.E. Mr. Kirill Mikhailovich Barsky (sixth left), Ambassador of the Russian Federation to Thailand, Mr. Somdet Susomboon (center), Deputy Director of Department of International Trade Promotion (DITP), Ministry of Commerce, and Mr. Kriengkrai Thiennukul (fifth left), Vice Chairman of the Federation of Thai Industries, in the “Eurasian Day 2017: Doing Business in Russia and Kazakhstan with In-depth Markets Intelligence and Strategy” seminar held by Thai-Russian Business Council and DITP at Chaophya Park Hotel. In this seminar, EXIM Thailand joined a panel discussion on Obstacles and Opportunities in Finding Financial Resources and Doing Business in Kazakhstan, an emerging market with high potential. EXIM Thailand is ready to facilitate international trade transactions through its network of 19 correspondent banks in Russia and Kazakhstan.

March 3, 2017