

EXIM Thailand Provides Scholarship and Donation to Underprivileged Children via FORDEC

Mrs. Wantana Mongkolsri (fourth right), Senior Executive Vice President of Export-Import Bank of Thailand (EXIM Thailand), recently led EXIM Thailand's executives and staff to participate in the charitable activities and make a cash donation to the Foundation for Rehabilitation and Development of Children and Family (FORDEC) on the occasion of FORDEC's 20th Anniversary at Wat Mahawong Community Daycare Center-FORDEC 6 in Samut Prakan province. EXIM Thailand's group was received by Dr. Amporn Wathanavongs (center), FORDEC's Founder and President & CEO. As the main sponsor of FORDEC, EXIM Thailand and its employees have donated to FORDEC by means of monthly debit of EXIM Thailand's employees' payroll accounts in the accumulated amount of over 2.4 million baht since 1999 with an aim to support education and life quality enhancement to the underprivileged children.
