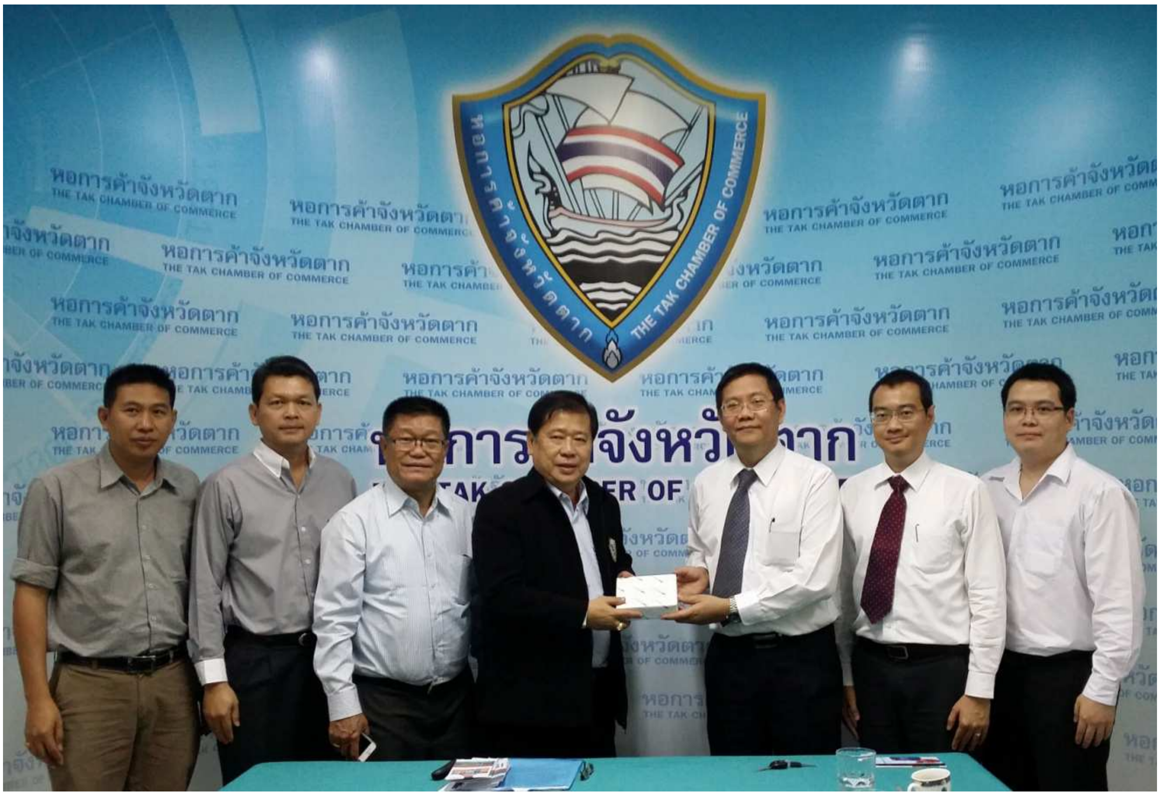
EXIM Thailand Visits Tak Chamber of Commerce to Promote Trade and Investment Finance in Special Economic Development Zones and Border Areas



Mr. Kematat Saicheur (third right), Executive Vice President of Export-Import Bank of Thailand (EXIM Thailand), recently met Mr. Somsak Kaveerat (center), Chairman of the Tak Chamber of Commerce, at the Tak Chamber of Commerce office to reiterate EXIM Thailand’s readiness to provide financial services to support the government’s policy in developing Tak province into a Special Economic Development Zone in the long term. This year, EXIM Thailand launched new financial products including “SMEs Border Trade”, a non-document working capital loan up to 10 million baht per client and Financing Facility for Special Economic Development Zones which is a loan with up to 15 years of repayment period, longer than that offered by commercial banks.
