

EXIM Thailand Visits Trat Governor

Mr. Kematat Saicheur (second left), Executive Vice President of Export-Import Bank of Thailand (EXIM Thailand), recently paid a courtesy call on Mr. Narong Teerachuntarangkul (center), Trat Governor, at Trat City Hall to reaffirm EXIM Thailand's readiness to provide financial support to Thai entrepreneurs interested in investing in the Special Economic Development Zone or engaging in Thai-Cambodian border trade in Trat province, which has become a convenient economic hub for Thailand, Cambodia and Vietnam. In 2015, EXIM Thailand rolled out new products to offer integrated financial solutions for Thai enterprises consisting of "SMEs Border Trade," a non-document working capital loan up to 10 million baht per customer for Thai businesses engaging in cross border trade and "Financing Facility for Special Economic Development Zones," a long-term loan with a repayment period of up to 15 years.
