

EXIM Thailand to Become the First Thai Bank to Finance Trade with Iran
After Lifting of UN Sanctions in Support of Government Policy to Drive 10-fold Growth in Thai-Iranian Trade in 5 Years

Mr. Manas Jamveha (left), Chairman of Export-Import Bank of Thailand (EXIM Thailand) and Mr. Kematat Saicheur (right), Acting President of EXIM Thailand, told a press conference that the Bank was ready to render financial facilities and transaction services to promote Thai-Iranian trade in line with Thai government that targeted to boost Thai-Iranian trade value from around USD 300 million in 2015 to USD 3,000 million within 5 years at EXIM Thailand's Head Office on April 5, 2016. In this regard, EXIM Thailand will be the first Thai bank to officially and legitimately provide banking services following the UN Security Council's removal of sanctions on this country since January, 2016.

April 5, 2016