

EXIM Thailand Prepares Thai Entrepreneurs for Russian Market Penetration

Dr. Virabongsa Ramangkura, Chairman of the Board of Directors, Export-Import Bank of Thailand (EXIM Thailand), delivered a keynote address at the opening of a seminar titled “Russia: Look before You Leap” co-organized by EXIM Thailand and the Russian Studies Programme, Thammasat University’s Faculty of Liberal Arts, on July 25, 2006 at the Emerald Hotel. The forum participated by guest speakers from both public and private sectors provided exporters and interested people with knowledge and insights on Russian economic structure and conditions, consumer behavior and regulations on business operations in Russia.

Picture 1 Ms. Srirat Rastapana, Vice Secretary, the Secretariat of the Cabinet, Office of the Prime Minister as guest speaker on “Strategic Plan on Trade, Investment and Thai and Russian Relations”

Picture 2 Mr. Weerachai Nopsuwanwong, Director of Thai Trade Center in Mosco, as guest speaker on “Financial Rules and Regulations for Trade with Russia and Thailand-Russia Trade and Investment Opportunities”

Picture 3 Dr. Rom Phiramontri, Director of the Russian Studies Programme, Thammasat University’s Faculty of Liberal Arts as guest speaker on “What Thai Entrepreneurs Should Know About the ‘Russian’ ”

Picture 4 Mrs. Vilaysack Dynavong, President of CPAC Monier (Laos) Co.,Ltd. and Sainatee Trading Import-Export Co.,Ltd. as guest speaker on “Russian Market Penetration Strategies”

Picture 5 Participants

July 26, 2006